Diversity

We collect and report data on the diversity of our workforce. Due to the size of our firm, we do not publish information on the diversity of our team. Should you require information about our collection and reporting obligations please contact Nicholas Morris at nick.morris@ncmorris.co.uk.

Client Care

If you have any concerns in relation to how your matter is being/has been handled, please refer the matter in the first instance to the member of staff who is acting/ acted for you.

If however, you continue to have concerns, you may register your complaint with us, by emailing the firm's Client Care Partner, Nick Morris at nick.morris@ncmorris.co.uk or Charles Joly at Charles.joly@ncmorris.co.uk (in the event your concerns relate to Nick Morris).

Our Complaints Procedure may be found here.

Statement of Compliance Criminal Finances Act

We value our reputation for ethical behaviour, financial probity and reliability. We recognise that over and above the commission of any crime, any involvement in the facilitation of tax evasion will also reflect adversely on our image and reputation.

We do not tolerate tax evasion, or the facilitation thereof in any circumstances, whether committed by or facilitated by a client, personnel or associated persons/companies.

We are committed to fighting tax evasion and have rigorous policies and procedures in place to detect and prevent the facilitation of tax evasion offences.

We require all personnel to demonstrate the highest standards of honesty at all times and appropriate disciplinary action will be taken wherever tax evasion or the facilitation thereof by any personnel has been proven.

We undertake due diligence on all associated persons/companies to mitigate the risk of facilitation of tax evasion offences and, as part of our due diligence procedures, all agreements with third parties contain suitable provisions to enable termination of such agreements where associated persons/companies are not complying with the provisions of the Criminal Finances Act 2017.
